

FRANCE TO ASSUME GUIDANCE OF ARMENIA

UNLESS CONFERENCE DECIDES OTHERWISE.

Explanation of Speech of Stephen Pichon, Foreign Minister.

Paris, Dec. 31.—(A. P.)—France plans to assume the guidance of Armenia, Syria and Lebanon in the new order of world affairs growing out of the war in conformity with treaties signed with Great Britain and Russia in 1916, if the coming peace conference does not rule otherwise, according to authoritative information furnished the Associated Press.

Palestine, according to the plan under consideration, would, with its complexity of nationalities and religions, be placed under international protection. England would be responsible for the Arabian peninsula, with the exception of the kingdom of Hedjaz, which would be free. France, it is emphatically stated, each of the terms "protectorate" in connection with her proposed supervision of these countries, and it is probable that some such relations with them as exists between England and her dominions would be established under the plan.

These facts were given as an explanation of a declaration of Stephen Pichon, foreign minister, in the chamber of deputies on Sunday. Referring to the manner in which France would deal with Asia Minor and nationalities formerly ruled by Turkey, M. Pichon said: "We have nothing but friendly feelings for the Turks, and we have justified them in the protection of subjugated nations in the Ottoman empire over which we have exercised our rights. Our rights are incontestable in Armenia, Syria, Lebanon and Palestine. They are based on historic conventions and on more recent contracts. While admitting the entire liberty of the peace conference to deal with the subject, we consider our rights are established by our agreements with Great Britain."

HAIG TO BE MADE EARL

Admiral Beatty, Gen. Byng and Others Elevated.

London, Jan. 1.—Earldoms will be conferred on Field Marshal Haig and Vice-Admiral Beatty in recognition of their services during the war, according to the Mail. It is stated Gen. Horne, Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, Lord Jellicoe and Lord Jellicoe will be elevated to the peerage. The newspaper says that these honors probably will be accompanied by grants of money.

Immediate announcement of these honors is said by the Mail to be improbable, as Field Marshal Haig prefers to remain in command of the British armies until the treaty is signed and the army is reconstructed on peace basis, a work in which he is taking a deep interest. It is recalled that Lord Roberts received a parliamentary grant of $500,000 and that Lord Kitchener was given $25,000 after the South African war. These grants were in addition to the titles conferred upon them. It is reported Vice-Admiral Beatty will be given the rank of full admiral. Since he took over the command of the fleet from Sir John Jellicoe, he has borne the title of "acting admiral." The Marquis of Milfordhaven, commanding the second cruised squadron, and former first lord of the admiralty, has been placed on the retired list at his own request.

FORD PAYS $6 A DAY

Flat Increase of Dollar for 28,000 Employees.

Detroit, Jan. 1.—A new minimum wage scale of $6 a day, a flat increase of $1 a day for approximately 28,000 employees throughout the country, was announced today by the Ford Motor company. Employees of the Ford tractor interests also are included in the increase. The new wage minimum becomes effective today.

Twenty-three thousand other employees of the Ford interests already receive $6 or more a day.

Coinciding with the announcement of the wage increase it was made known that Henry Ford has formally resigned as president of the Ford Motor company, and his son, Edsel, elected to succeed him at a salary of $150,000 a year.

Reason for Resigning. Mr. Ford, in tendering his resignation, gave as his reason his desire to devote more time to the tractor industry. He retains, however, his seat on the board of directors of the company in an advisory capacity.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

Edsel Bryant Ford, who becomes the executive head of a corporation representing an investment of close to $200,000,000, is only 24 years old. He entered the shops of the Ford plant when he was 16 years old, to gain a thorough working knowledge of his father's business. He has been acting as executive head of the Ford Motor company for the past few months, his father having withdrawn from active participation in the management to devote his time to the tractor business and a new national weekly newspaper.

Concerning the wage increase Henry Ford said today that it was "only a just reward to the men who remained loyal to the company during the war period."

Reason for Resigning.

WHOM WILL 1919 BRING AS PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES?

It's the Year of Political Maneuvering, When the Big Parties Decide On the Leaders From Whom They Will Pick Their 1920 Nominees — Here Is the Year's First Survey of the Political Situation.

(By WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD, of the N. E. A. Washington News Bureau)

FOUR DEMOCRATIC POSSIBILITIES

A TOM JOHNSON PRESIDENT?

The soul of "John Brown" went marching on in the civil war. But, in this war, so far as Washington was concerned it was the soul of Tom Johnson, Cleveland, that marched. Johnson was a "forward looking" man in days when they were scarce, but if, from his remote place on the islands of death, he has been able to glance now and then at Washington, he has seen his "boys," the men he trained as youths in Cleveland, holding the giant's job in the government. At least a dozen of them, including W. B. Colver, chairman of the federal trade commission, and Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, have had a big hand in winning the war.

"This said in Washington that, if he could have his way, President Wilson would be delighted to see Newton D. Baker, the next president. Wilson has already said publicly that Baker was one of the best public servants he had ever known. But will Baker run? It depends, in a large part, on how soon a majority of our boys return from abroad and how they will look upon him as presidential timber.

Can Willie McAdoo do to the American people what he has done to his father-in-law? Can he wind voters around his little finger as he winds other folks?

In Washington where streets are named after the alphabet, they say there is a street named McAdoo. It isn't called McAdoo street. No. It is called "11" street.

McAdoo, has, in Washington's opinion, neglected no opportunities to get his name onto the millions of posters of the railroad administration. However that may be, we all know him by name; and that's about all.

The other day, before congress, President Wilson threw the question of government control of the railroads into the open arena. Was this to give Son-in-Law William a chance to rescue it and save it for the American people in the campaign of 1920? Very likely it was. If McAdoo does run it will be on that issue. He didn't use to believe in government control of railroads. But since his experience in Washington, he's been set for it. He took a Wilson daughter to wed. He has taken many Wilson burdens. Now will he be able to take the Wilson chair?

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.

There was a time, before we went into the war, when President Wilson and Secretary Houston spent most of their time together. They were the two pals of the cabinet. Those were days of talk and theory, however, with our entry into the war, Newton D. Baker seemed to loom to the fore in Wilson's attention. He was a "doer" and that was what Wilson needed. But for brains and comprehension Houston is said to be almost the double of Woodrow Wilson.